Vidal-Boiron Louis 1B Date : 06/12/22

Homework of December 6th 2022 : Questions after Two Headlines.

1. The two headlines are probably the titles of fake news stories.

2. The first story is satirical. The second one is a fake news story. The two stories are false.

3. Robert is 34 and works in hospitality in Washington. He also writes satirical news stories for Real News Right Now, a website he has created.
He’s not motivated by money. He actually likes writing these articles.

4. The main technique Robert uses is to situe between lie, satire and real news, in a large “grey area”.

5. Some Internet users trust directly satirical news because they are simple and funny. They don't want to ask questions about truth.

6. This quotation means that people is ready to believe easily everything.

7. Yes, I can mistake because I know that fake news exist and I must check everything. So, this is my advice to readers : check, check, check !